

Library

Hebrew Union College-
Jewish Institute of Religion

RBR
L
P

The Klau Library, Cincinnati

SCRIPTURAL QUESTIONS,

FOR THE

USE OF SUNDAY SCHOOLS

FOR

THE INSTRUCTION OF ISRAELITES.

COMPILED

BY E. PYKE.

LIBRARY OF
THE AMERICAN COLLEGE
PHILADELPHIA

L. R. BAILEY, PR., NORTH FIFTH ST.

1849
LIBRARY
INSTITUTION

RBR
2412

Rare

Am.

BM

105

P68

1849

NO VRA 9811

1100 3129091 ANT

PRAYER.

O God, give unto us the help we need; give us bread to eat, and raiment to put on, and instruction to understand thy mercies; may we be grateful for all thy goodness; may we be dutiful to our parents; honest in all our dealings; true in our words and actions; affectionate in our behaviour to one another; attentive to our teachers; and above all, ardent and devout in adoring thee alone, the God of our fathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob; enlighten our faith, that we may daily repeat the acknowledgment of thy unity. "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord. Blessed be the name of the glory of his kingdom for ever and ever." Amen.

REBEKAH PARTING WITH HER SON JACOB.

My youngest born, my pride of heart, thou must, thou must away,

Thy brother's wrathful hand is raised, and here thou must not stay.

O, I have deeply sin'd for thee! the chastisement be mine—
And I will bear it all, my son! the blessing shall be thine.
What matter tho' my childless years in grief and pain pass on,
Thou wilt be safe from danger's hurt, my own, my darling son;

And like the fountain sending forth a sweet and murmuring sound,

Thy pleasant voice will come to me, from some far distant ground.—

Go, bear thy mother's blessing back, to those from whom she came,

My kinsman's breasts will leap with joy to hear Rebekah's name.

Say to them, Haran's shaded well, and flocks that near it stray,

Come to her in midnight dreams, as fresh as yesterday.

Speed on, and when thy nimble feet have brought thee to the place,

And when thou stand'st an exiled one before my brother's face,

Tell him thou bear'st thy mother's soul, and therefore will not twine

Around the savage olive-tree, a strong and noble vine.

Ask, if of all my kinsman's house, no maiden bright there be

Of lofty soul, with heart to seek thy father's God with thee?

And if there be, O say to her, Rebekah left her all—

The Father of the faithful spoke, and she obeyed the call.

The angel of the covenant, protect thee, precious child;

Defend thee from the covered snare—direct thee in the wild.

O! I shall weep in darkness oft, to think thy houseless head

Must pillow on the stony ground, or seek the fox's bed.

But glory, breaking on the gloom, my grief to joy shall turn;

Proud mother of a favour'd race, ah! wherefore shouldst thou mourn!

Go then, fulfil the Eternal's word, the blessing is for thee,

And joy and pride, and thankfulness, beloved son, for me.

SCRIPTURAL QUESTIONS,

WITH

ANSWERS IN RHYME.

- Q. Who formed you, child, and made you live?
A. God did my life and spirit give.
Q. Who keeps you safely, can you tell?
A. God keeps me safe, and makes me well.
Q. Has God made known the way of truth?
A. The Bible is the guide of youth.
Q. What should you feel towards God above?
A. Honour and fear and grateful love.
Q. Does God know all you do and say?
A. Yes! and my thoughts, too, night and day.
Q. Have you evil thoughts within?
A. Yes, or I should not often sin.
Q. How do your thoughts their evil show?
A. By sinful words, and actions, too.
Q. And does not sin God's anger move?
A. Yes! for I sin against his love.
Q. Must you repent, with humble heart?
A. Yes! and from every sin depart.

- Q. How should a child begin to pray?
A. Lord, teach me what to think and say.
Q. Must you of every lie beware?
A. Yes! with most strict and constant care.
Q. Must you ever in anger be?
A. From pride and anger I must flee.
Q. Must you your books and teachers love?
A. Yes, but much more, my God above.
Q. What must you, your parents show?
A. Obedience, love, and honour, too.
Q. What must your brothers in you find?
A. A heart that's always mild and kind.
Q. Must you your sisters always love?
A. Yes! and be gentle as a dove.
Q. How must you act to all you know?
A. I must to all, my kindness show.
Q. Will God regard the hymns you raise?
A. Yes! God loves an infant's praise.
Q. Who only can direct your youth?
A. My God, the only God of truth.
Q. And how may you his grace receive?
A. In one true God, I must believe.

Questions, the Answers of which consist of two lines in Rhyme.

- q. Who made you?
 A. 'Twas God who made my infant frame,
 'Twas God from whom my spirit came.
- q. Who takes care of you?
 A. God keeps me safe, and makes me well:
 No child can all his goodness tell.
- q. What books has God given to teach us?
 A. The Holy Scriptures, full of truth,
 Can guide and cleanse and teach our youth.
- q. Should children love God?
 A. O, yes! the youngest child should love:
 The gracious God who dwells above.
- q. Does God always see you?
 A. All that I do or think or say,
 God knows, he sees me night and day.
- q. How do children show that they have bad hearts?
 A. By wicked passions, words and ways,
 The heart its sinfulness betrays.
- q. Is God angry with sinners?
 A. Yes! God is angry when we sin;
 He knows how wicked we have been.

- q. Must you confess and repent of your sins?
 A. Yes! with a humble, broken heart,
 And from all sinful ways depart.
- q. Do you love your God?
 A. O, yes! I do with all my heart,
 And from him I will ne'er depart.
- q. Does God regard the young?
 A. Though on his glorious throne above,
 Children he does regard with love.
- q. Will God hear the praise of children?
 A. Yes! God will hear the hymn I raise,
 And God does love an infant's praise.
- q. Do you need the help of God?
 A. The only god, the God of Truth,
 Alone can guide my thoughtless youth.
- q. Must you always keep from lying?
 A. My tongue must never tell a lie,
 Because the God of Truth is high.
- q. Must you from evil passions flee?
 A. I must not in a passion be,
 Because the Holy God can see.
- q. Should you try to learn, and be wise?
 A. The child is best who soonest tries
 To learn to be both good and wise.
- q. How must you act towards others?
 A. To others I must always be
 As I would have them be to me.

- Q. Must you love your father and mother?
- A. My father, and my mother, too,
I must both love and honour you.
- Q. How must you act towards your brothers?
- A. In me my brothers ought to find
A heart that's always mild and kind.
- Q. How must you act towards your sisters?
- A. My sisters I must strive to please,
And never injure, vex, or tease.
- Q. How must you act towards other children, and to all people?
- A. I must, to all I know and see,
Be kind as any child can be.
- Q. Do children often die?
- A. Children have died as young as I,
And soon, I may be sick and die.
- Q. Will God judge the young?
- A. The Lord will judge both small and great,
And fix their everlasting state.
- Q. What should be your wish when you die?
- A. That God may take me, when I die,
To live with Him, above the sky.

CHAPTER I.

- Q. Who made you?
- A. God!
- Q. Why did God make you?
- A. God made me that I might know him, love him, and serve him for ever in Heaven.
- Q. In whose likeness did God make you?
- A. In his own image and likeness.
- Q. Is this likeness in your body or in your soul?
- A. In my soul.
- Q. In what is your soul like to God?
- A. Because my soul is a spirit, and immortal.
- Q. What do you mean when you say that your soul is immortal?
- A. I mean that my soul can never die.
- Q. How shall we know with certainty what God has taught?
- A. From the Holy Bible, which is the pillar and ground of truth.

CHAPTER II.

- Q. Who is God?
- A. He is the Maker and Lord of Heaven and Earth.
- Q. Why is God called Almighty?
- A. Because God can do all things, and nothing is hard or impossible for him.
- Q. Why is God called Creator of Heaven and Earth?
- A. Because God made Heaven and Earth, and all things, out of nothing.
- Q. Had God any beginning?
- A. No! God always was, and always will be.
- Q. Where is God?
- A. God is every where.
- Q. If God be every where, why do we not see him?
- A. Because God is a pure spirit, having no body.
- Q. Does God know and see all things?
- A. Yes! God knows and sees all things, even our most secret thoughts and actions.
- Q. Are there more gods than one?
- A. No! there is but one God.

CHAPTER III.

Ten Commandments.

- Q. Who gave the commandments?
- A. God gave them to Moses on Mount Sinai.
- Q. Which is the first commandment?
- A. I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, and out of the house of bondage; thou shalt have no other God before me.
- Q. What is commanded by this?
- A. To believe, hope in, love and serve, one true and living God, and no more.
- Q. Which is the second commandment?
- A. Thou shalt not make thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in the Heaven above, or in the Earth beneath, or in the waters under the Earth; thou shalt not bow down to them, nor serve them.
- Q. What are we forbidden by this commandment?
- A. To worship false gods or idols, or to give any thing else, whatsoever, the honour which belongs to God.

- Q. Does this commandment forbid us to make images?
- A. It forbids the making images, to adore and serve them. That is, it forbids making them our gods.
- Q. What is the third commandment?
- A. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless who taketh his name in vain.
- Q. What are we commanded by this?
- A. To avoid all false, rash, unjust, and unnecessary oaths; also, cursing, blaspheming, and profane words.
- Q. What is the fourth commandment?
- A. Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.
- Q. What are we forbidden by this commandment?
- A. All unnecessary work, and sinful profanation of the Sabbath day.
- Q. What is the fifth commandment?
- A. Honour thy father and mother.
- Q. What are we commanded by the fifth commandment?
- A. To love, honour, and obey our parents in all that is not sinful.

- Q. Are we commanded to obey only our father and mother?
- A. Not only them, but also our teachers, magistrates, and masters.
- Q. What is forbidden by this commandment?
- A. Contempt, stubbornness, and disobedience to our lawful superiors.
- Q. And what is the duty of parents and other superiors?
- A. To take proper care of those under their charge, and to bring up their children in the fear of God.
- Q. What is the sixth commandment?
- A. Thou shalt not kill.
- Q. What does the sixth commandment forbid?
- A. Wilful murder, hatred, and revenge.
- Q. Does it forbid strife?
- A. Yes! as anger, quarrelling, and injurious words.
- Q. What else?
- A. Giving ear to scandal and showing a bad example.
- Q. What is the seventh commandment?
- A. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
- Q. What are we forbidden by this?
- A. All kinds of immodesty by looks, words, or actions.

- Q. What is the eighth commandment?
- A. Thou shalt not steal.
- Q. What is forbidden by this commandment?
- A. Unjustly taking away or keeping what belongs to others.
- Q. What else?
- A. All manner of cheating in buying or selling, or any other way of wronging our neighbours.
- Q. Must we restore ill gotten goods?
- A. Yes! if we are able, or else the sin will not be forgiven.
- Q. What is the ninth commandment?
- A. Thou shalt not bear false-witness against thy neighbour.
- Q. What is forbidden by this commandment?
- A. False testimonies, rash judgments, and lies.
- Q. What else?
- A. All backbitings and detraction, or words and speeches by which our neighbour's honour or reputation is in any way hurt.
- Q. What is he bound to do who has injured his neighbour by speaking ill of him?
- A. He must make him satisfaction and restore his good name, as far as he is able.

- Q. What is the tenth commandment?
- A. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife; thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's goods.
- Q. What is forbidden by this?
- A. Covetous thoughts and unjust desires of our neighbour's goods and profit.

CHAPTER IV.

Of the Virtues.

- Q. What are the qualities on which religion is based?
- A. Faith, hope, and charity.
- Q. What is faith?
- A. A fervent belief in God, his wisdom, power and mercy, and in the revelation of his holy will.
- Q. What is hope?
- A. It is the expectation that God will grant all our proper desires.
- Q. What is charity?
- A. A feeling of universal good will to all mankind, because all are created by God.

q. How may true charity be shown?

A. By feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, clothing the naked, visiting and releasing the captive, sheltering the houseless, visiting the sick, and burying the dead.

q. Which are the two precepts of charity?

A. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soul, with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; secondly, thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.

q. Are there any others?

A. Yes! admonishing the weak, instructing the ignorant, counselling the doubtful, comforting the sorrowful, bearing wrongs patiently, forgiving injuries, praying for all men.

q. Let me hear you express the love that you have towards God and your neighbours?

A. O! my God, I love thee above all things, with my whole heart and soul, because thou art infinitely good, and deserving of all love; I love also my neighbour as my self, for the love of thee; I forgive all who have injured me, and ask pardon of all I have injured.

HYMN.

We are but young; yet we may sing
The praises of our Heavenly King:
He made the earth, the sea, and sky,
And all the starry worlds on high.

We are but young; yet we have heard,
From the true God, the Heavenly word;
If we despise the only way,
Dreadful will be the judgment day.

We are but young; yet God has shed
Unnumbered blessings on our head:
Then let our youth, and riper days,
Be all devoted to his praise.

